

Tele2 announces changes to the Group Leadership Team

Stockholm – Tele2 AB (“Tele2”) (Nasdaq Stockholm: TEL2 A and TEL2 B) announces that Yogesh Malik, Executive Vice President and CTIO, will step down from his position effective from today.

Yogesh joined Tele2 and the Group Leadership Team in April 2021 and has been responsible for Networks and IT, including the extensive roll-out of Tele2’s award winning 5G network and the major IT transformations that Tele2 has undertaken to have all their brands on one IT platform.

- I want to thank Yogesh for his important contributions to Tele2. His knowledge and experience have been critical through these years of change and transformation. I wish him all the best in his future endeavours, says Jean Marc Harion, CEO & President at Tele2.

Ove Wik, currently Head of Digital Capabilities and Technology Sweden, at Tele2, will take on the position as acting EVP CTIO effective from today.

For more information, please contact:

Fredrik Hallstan, Head of External Communications Phone: +46 761 15 38 30

Stefan Billing, Head of Investor Relations, Phone: +46 701 66 33 10

Tele2 is a leading telco with the purpose to enable a society of unlimited possibilities. Through our networks and services — ranging from mobile and fixed connectivity, telephony and data network services to TV, streaming and global IoT solutions — we are deeply connected to every aspect of today’s digital lifestyle. By making our infrastructure more powerful, reliable and sustainable, we enable society to become that as well. Tele2 was founded in 1993 and is listed on Nasdaq Stockholm. In 2023, Tele2 generated revenue of SEK 29 billion and reported an underlying EBITDAaL of SEK 10 billion. For latest news and definitions of measures, please see our homepage www.tele2.com